Peer Review Process

All contributions submitted to The International Conference on Technology, Business, Engineering, and Society FIELDS (ICTBES-2026) that are selected for peer review are sent to two or more independent reviewers, selected by the Track chairs. From different types of peer-review, a Double-Blind Review was selected; both the reviewer and the author remain anonymous. Author anonymity prevents any reviewer bias based on the author's country of origin or previous controversial work. Articles written by prestigious or renowned authors are considered based on the content of their papers, rather than on the author's reputation.

Author Guide: Authors who wish to submit their papers are advised to review the submission guidelines carefully before proceeding. Please refer to the provided link for detailed templates and guidelines:

Such reasons shall include, but not be limited to, papers which infringe third party rights, contain libelous or unlawful statements and/or have not been peer reviewed in accordance with the Peer Review Policy. The Publisher takes allegations of research and publication misconduct very seriously and will investigate any such allegations in accordance with its procedures.
